Subject.

Proposal to grant a monthly allowance of Rs: 10/- to the Hospital Apptt, Central Jail, Bangalore, in lieu of the present lump sum allowance of Rs: 100/- per annum.

Senior Surgeon's letter No 468 dated the 12th June, 1903.

Note.

In his letter No 1018, dated the 4th August, 1888, (printed with Govt Order No 1889-97/45 dated the 4th June, 1889), the Senior Surgeon, while recommending the grant of charge allowces of Rs: 10, 15 and 20/- per mensem to the Hospital Assistants in charge of Local Fund Dispensaries in the Maidan, Semi-Malnad and Malnad Talukas, respectively, had also recommended the grant of an allowance of Rs 10/- per mensem to the Hospital Assistants attached to the Central, Mysore and Shemoga Jails. But, before Govt passed orders on the above, Col McGann, the then Senior Surgeon, in his letter No 1675 dated the 21st November 1888, addressed Govt as follows:—

Slip A S.No 7

Serial No 4 with Slip B

"I have the honour to recommend that charge allowces be omitted for the Hospit

Hospital Apttes attached to the Mysore and Shimoga Jails, as these subordinates have certain perquisites and I do not want them to be much more attractive than Local Fund dispy. charges for obvious reasons."

Thereafter, Govt invited the opinions of the Dy Commrs and sanctioned the charge allowances recommended by the Senior Surgeon to the Hospital Apttes in charge of Local Fund Dispensaries, leaving out those attached to Jails.

+ Paper with Slip C

Again in his letter No 1026 dated the 27th May, 1890, the Senior Surgeon (Col McGann) recommended the grant of the marginally noted allowances, not in the shape of a monthly allowance, but as a lump sum subject to the condition that the whole or any portion thereof might be given to them at the end of the year, according as the Med. Officer in charge of the Jail might think the Hospital Apttes deserved it.

In

In his present letter No 9 4688 dated the 12th June, 1903, the Offg Senior Surgeon ~~states~~ recommends that as the present rate of allowance was sanctioned some 13 years ago, the permanent Hospital Apts of the Central Jail, Bangalore, may be given an uniform allowance of Rs 10/- per mensem.

A printed Copy of the order No 8021-5-J637 9 8-11-02 abolishing the Shimoga Jail is also put up.

Submitted for orders.

Local Boards Branch to note below the rate of allowance vide to H. Asst in charge of L.F. Dis. pensaries & to those entitled thro' Dispensaries in the Bangalore & Mysore Cities Sd/ 11/7/03

Sd/- 11/7/03

The Hospital Assistants in charge of Local Fund Dispensaries are given an allowance of Rs 10, 15 & 20 in Maidan, Semi-Malnad and Malnad respectively. Hospital Assistants in charge of Dispensaries in the Mysore and Bangalore cities get a charge allowance of Rs 10/- each, but the one attached to the Epidemic Diseases Hospital in the latter city gets Rs 15/-× bd. The Senior Surgeon's 13.7.03 proposal involves an extra cost of Rs 20/- per annum, which under the circumstances above stated,

× This is given as a Special case.

Seems admissible.

Subject.

Proposal to grant a monthly allowance of Rs.10/- to the Hospital Asstt. Central Jail, Bangalore, in lieu of the present lump sum allowance of Rs.100/- per annum.

Note.

I understand the case to be thus:-

Hospital Assistants in independent charge in (1) Maidan (2) Semi Malnad, (3) and (4) Bangalore and Mysore Cities are given an allowance of Rs.10, 15, 20, and 10 a month respectively. To the Hospital Assistants attached to the Jails at Bangalore, Mysore and Shimoga a special annual allowance was sanctioned some years back, the rates varying from Rs.100 to Rs.70 a year. A reconsideration of this in so far as the Hospital Assistant attached to the Bangalore Central Jail has been asked for. If this official is to get Rs.10/- a month as recommended, is it not likely that the Mysore man will almost immediately claim similar treatment? Is there no difference between Jail Hospital Assistants and Hospital Assistants employed in independent charge elsewhere? Are not the former Hospital Assistants provided with free quarters, while the latter are not? The excess involved is no doubt slight but there is involved in this reference a question of principle, and let us not introduce an innovation simply because the head of the Department has sent up a proposal.

Srbd.

If the Hospital Assistant attached to the Central Jail Bangalore is given allowance

...crease of Rs.10 per mensem there can ...e no doubt that the Mysore man will claim similar treatment as observed by the 2nd Councillor. The duties of the Hospital Assistants in charge of jails are supervised by the medical officers in charge but the Hospital Assistants in charge of L.F.Dispensaries are in independent charge of them. The latter can have private practice but the former appear to have been prohibited from having any such practice. Hospital Assistants attached to jails have free quarters which those in charge of L.F.Dispensaries have not.

If we give to the Bangalore man, we must - When asked give to the Mysore man also — ll.

Here is a very small matter, the increase involved being only 20 Rs a month. There is this to be said in favor of a monthly payment, that there would be no difficulty when transfers are made during the year. Another consideration is that suitable Hospital Assts in charge of L.F. Dispensaries, like the Jail Hospital Assts Compounders, are private practice.

No. G. 468.

Sir,

In forwarding for favourable and early sanction of Government, the accompanying Memo No. 19 dated 2-6-03 in original from the Medical Officer Central Jail Bangalore, giving cover to an application dated 1st June 1903 from the Hospital Assistant attached to the Jail praying for reasons given, for an allowance of Rs.15/- per mensem, I have the honor to recommend that as the present rate of allowance was sanctioned some 13 years ago and as I think the premanent Hospital Assistant of the Jail should get an uniform allowance of Rs.10/- per mensem, Government will be pleased to accord sanction to my recommendation at an early date.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
